4. Disclosing personal data
4.1 We may disclose your personal data to any member of our group of companies (this means our subsidiaries, our ultimate holding company and all its subsidiaries) and any of our employees, officers, professional advisers, agents (including third party marketing, promotional or similar organisations), SW maintenance suppliers or distributors insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes set out in this policy.

4.2 We may also disclose your personal data:
(a) to the extent that we are required to do so by law;
(b) in connection with any ongoing or prospective legal proceedings;
(c) in order to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights (including providing information to others for the purposes of fraud prevention and reducing credit risk);
(d) to the purchaser (or prospective purchaser) of any business or asset that we are (or are contemplating) selling.

4.3 Except as provided in this policy, we will not provide your personal data to third parties.

5. Data transfers

5.1 Data that we collect may be stored and processed in and transferred:
(a) to third parties to the extent necessary for fulfilment of a contract or further obligations (e.g. to providers of IT system services, or transportation).
(b) between any of the countries in which we operate directly or indirectly through our networks of distributors in order to enable us to use the information in accordance with this policy for commercial and marketing purposes.

5.2 Data that we collect may be transferred or disclosed to the following countries which may not have data protection and privacy laws similar or equivalent to those in force in Australia or in the European Economic Area: https://www.comap-control.com/contact. By agreeing to this Privacy Policy, you acknowledge that Australian Privacy Principle 8.1 (which requires us to take reasonable steps to ensure overseas recipients of personal information do not breach the Australian Privacy Principles in relation to that information) will not apply to our disclosure.

5.3 You expressly agree to the transfers of personal data described in this Section 5.

6. Retaining personal data

6.1 This Section 6 sets out our data retention policies and procedure, which are designed to help ensure that we comply with our legal obligations in relation to the retention and deletion of personal data.

6.2 Personal data that we process for any purpose or purposes shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for that purpose or those purposes.

6.3 Without prejudice to Section 6.2, we will usually delete personal data falling within the categories set out below at the date/time set out below:
(a) when consent for personal data processing was granted we will delete the respective personal data or stop distributing any marketing media, without undue delay upon the request.

(b) when it is no longer required for the purpose for which it was obtained.

6.4 Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Section 6, we will retain documents (including electronic documents) containing personal data:

(a) to the extent that we are required to do so by law;

(b) if we believe that the documents may be relevant to any ongoing or prospective legal proceedings; and

(c) in order to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights (including providing information to others for the purposes of fraud prevention and reducing credit risk).

7. Security of your personal data

7.1 We will take reasonable technical and organizational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal data.

7.2 We will store all personal data you provide in accordance with our Security Procedure and internal policies, including current state of the art.

7.3 You acknowledge that the transmission of information over the internet is inherently insecure, and we cannot guarantee the security of data sent over the internet.

7.4 You are responsible for keeping the password and username you use for accessing our online services confidential (ComAp Portal); we will not ask you for your password (except when you log in).

8. Specific provisions applicable for Australia

8.1 Anonymity and Pseudonymity

You can deal with us anonymously (without identifying yourself) or under a pseudonym (fictitious name) unless you are applying for credit from us, applying for employment with us, dealing with us in relation to the provision of services or in any other situation where it is impractical or unlawful to deal with you anonymously or under a pseudonym.

8.2 Compliance

If you are concerned that the way in which we collect, hold, use or disclose your personal information may be in breach of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) or the Credit Reporting Privacy Code (Code), please send written details of your complaint to privacy@comap-control.com.

After receiving a complaint, we will conduct internal discussions and evaluate whether we believe that such collection, holding, use or disclosure of your personal information was in breach of the APPs and/or the Code. We will endeavour to notify you of the results of our investigation of your complaint within 30 days of receiving your complaint. However, if your complaint involves complex issues or requires extensive investigation, it may not be possible to respond within this timeframe. If the conclusion of our investigation is that our collection, holding, use or disclosure of your personal information was in breach of the APPs and/or the Code, we will take steps to remedy the breach as soon as reasonably practicable. If after dealing with us you are still not satisfied, you are entitled to make a complaint to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (www.oaic.gov.au) or the Financial Ombudsman Service (www.fos.org.au).

9. Amendments

9.1 We may update this policy from time to time by publishing a new version on our website.

9.2 You should check this page occasionally to ensure you are happy with any changes to this policy.

9.3 We may notify you of changes to this policy by email, through the private messaging system, or other social media.

10. Your rights

10.1 You may request us to provide you with any personal data we hold about you; provision of such information will be subject to:

(a) the payment if you request more than one copy; and

(b) the supply of appropriate evidence of your identity (for this purpose, we will usually accept a photocopy of your passport certified by a solicitor or bank plus an original copy of a utility bill showing your current address).

10.2 We shall satisfy your request for the right to be forgotten with respect to your personal data to the extent permitted by law.

10.3 You may instruct us at any time not to process your personal data for marketing purposes or delete your user account and respective personal data by e-mail to privacy@comap-control.com or under Settings in ComAp Portal.

10.4 In practice, you will usually either expressly agree in advance to our use of your personal data for marketing purposes, or we will provide you with an opportunity to opt out of the use of your personal data for marketing purposes.

10.5 If applicable, you have the right to data portability. We shall provide you with your data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and so that you transmit those data to another controller.

10.6 You have the right to request limitation of processing of your personal data in cases when you:

- contest the accuracy of your personal data;

- the processing is unlawful and instead of the deletion you request the restriction of the use of your personal data;

- we no longer need your personal data for the purposes of the processing, but you require them for the establishment, exercise or defense of your legal claims.

10.7 If you have a request based on the rights above please contact us by e-mail to privacy@comap-control.com.
10.8 If you are unsatisfied with respect to the personal data processing you have the right to turn to the respective Office for protection of personal data in the Czech Republic (www.uoou.cz).

11. Third party websites

11.1 Our website includes hyperlinks to, and details of, third party websites.

11.2 We have no control over, and are not responsible for, the privacy policies and practices of third parties.

12. Updating or change of personal data

Please let us know if the personal data that we hold about you needs to be corrected or updated. Please inform us by e-mail send to privacy@comap-control.com.

13. Cookies, other technologies, CRM, and Whistleblowing system

13.1 Our website uses Cookies and other technologies. Please see the Cookies and other technologies policy.

13.2 Please see our CRM statement.

13.3 Please see GDPR information for whistleblowers.
